Subject: Seminar-Workshop on the Pedagogies for Beginning Reading cum Story Writing

Date: August 7, 2019

1. The Department of Education El Salvador City Division is steadfast in strengthening its commitment and in putting learners at the heart of the school; hence, it continuously improves its programs, projects and other activities to effectively address the most pressing issues and concerns particularly the reading and literacy level of every learner in El Salvador City. Primarily, this Office initiates the conduct of a Seminar-workshop on the Pedagogies of Beginning Reading on August 13-16, 2019 at Sophie Red Resort and Hotel, Jasaan, Misamis Oriental to capacitate teachers in equipping learners with the strategic reading and writing skills, thereby preparing the learners to be independent readers.
2. The activity aims to:
  - a. To enhance teachers knowledge on the breakthroughs and most effective strategies in developing reading and writing skills;
  - b. To facilitate in crafting lesson exemplars and instructional materials utilizing contextualized and indigenized learning materials; and
  - c. To provide adequate attention on the priority development and learning needs of the learners especially on beginning reading and writing.
3. The participants to this activity are the Education Program Supervisors, School Heads, 23 Teachers of Project Care for ELSA Readers (CER), 15 Grade 1 Reading Teachers, and 15 Grade 2 Reading Teachers. Each participating school is directed to bring all available instructional materials (IMs) for beginning reading, materials needed in the crafting of IMs, worksheets, books, modules, profile of the learners (last three years and the pretest results of the current year), copy of their previous and current school reading programs and the likes for the purpose of modification and adoption, and/or evaluation.
