January 2021

Dr. Arturo B. Bayocot
Regional Director
Region X, Department of Education

Dear Dr. Arturo B. Bayocot,

Greetings!

The Asia Pacific Research Association on Curriculum Studies (APRACSI) is hosting the 4th Asia Pacific Conference on Curriculum Studies and Instructional Designing (APCCSID) on February 25 to 26, 2021. This was supposed to be held last September 3-5, 2020 in Thailand. However, due to the current situation, the APRACSI board members decided to have an online conference instead.

This year's conference theme is "Curriculum Studies in Current Challenges: Designing for the Future." The goal is to provide avenues for sharing and documenting innovative experiences in facing the challenges of the pandemic, which can help determine the new normal for curriculum studies.

Our keynote speaker is Dr. Murray Print from University of Sydney and the plenary speakers include, Dr. Andrew Wall from Redlands University, Dr. Zongyi Deng from University College London, Dr. Takuya Baba from Hiroshima University Japan, and Dr. Ng So Boon from SEGI University, Malaysia. Attached is the APCCSID 2020 poster and program for your perusal of the conference details.

Aside from plenary speeches, there will be panel discussions and paper presentations focused on the following strands which cuts across all disciplines:

1. Challenges in Curriculum Planning, Implementation, and Evaluation
2. Strategies in Facing Challenges in Curriculum Planning, Implementation & Evaluation
3. Challenges in Instructional Designing and Evaluation
4. Strategies in Facing Challenges in Instructional Designing and Evaluation

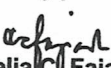

We would like to invite interested paper presenters to submit research abstracts in any of these strands. The deadline for the second call of submission of abstracts is on February 15, 2021. Kindly email 250-word abstract to program@apracsi.org or provide it within the registration form.

This conference is FREE for APRACSI members. You can apply for or renew your membership online through this link and register for the conference: <https://forms.gle/Ko3qMfwoTMrQ4cCo6>. For non-APRACSI members, there is a minimal registration fee to join the conference. Instructions for payment will be sent upon completion of registration form.

For any inquiries, do not hesitate to contact us by sending an email to inquiries@apracsi.org.

Thank you and we look forward to seeing you online in APCCSID!

Sincerely yours,

Amelia C. Fajardo, Ph.D.
