Dear Dr. Bayocot,

Greetings! We would like to invite the MAPEH, SPA and Dance Education teachers of Region 10 to our upcoming workshop, Basic Dance Composition for Teachers.

Basic Dance Composition for Teachers is open to teachers of all dance forms—ballet, contemporary dance, folk dance, and more. This 5-day workshop gives dance teachers tools to plan, structure and embellish their choreography for students of all ages.

Topics include: dance composition and its elements, methods of construction, choice of content, arrangement of material, motif development, and more. Participants will attend lectures and do practical work, and present a dance study output at the end of the workshop. They will receive a certificate of participation and be part of Ballet Philippines' community of teachers, who will be invited to workshops and events.

Speaker: Mr. Stanley Cañete, BPDS faculty member. Mr. Cañete was a former company member of Ballet Philippines and Philippine Ballet Theatre who performed soloist roles in major productions and international tours. He received a professional diploma from the Hong Kong Academy of the Performing Arts.
