Dear Dr. Alonsabe,

Greetings from Fulbright Philippines!

PAEF will be organizing a celebration of the International Education Week (IEW) from November 14 to 18, 2022. IEW is an opportunity to celebrate the benefits of international education and exchanges worldwide. As the Fulbright Commission in the Philippines, we are highlighting the impact of the Fulbright program as an international and education exchange program as we expand its reach in the education sector in the Philippines.

As part of IEW, the International Leaders in Education Program/Fulbright Distinguished Awards for International Teaching Philippine Alumni Association (ILEP-FDAI PAA ) will conduct its first International Conference with the theme "Educational Transformation through Teacher Leadership" on November 17-19, 2022 at the PAEF Office, Mandaluyong City. The conference aims to uphold leadership skills among teachers; examine methods and effective strategies through sharing of best practices; provide teachers a training on technology integration in instruction; and set up initiatives that would engage ILEP/FDAI alumni and teacher participants in promoting teacher empowerment. The said conference will be through hyflex modality with ILEP/FDAI alumni to meet in person at the conference venue and other invited teachers to join via zoom platform. Meals and conference kit will be provided for free for the in-person participants. Likewise, participants online will receive certificates and soft copies of conference materials for free

In view of this, may we invite Mr. Merogim P. Mugot, School Head/Education Program Supervisor, to attend the said conference. Furthermore, please extend also this invitation to the teachers in your Division to attend online via zoom platform.
